MELLA MUSIC

AN ALL-THINGS-MUSIC BLOG

---

MELLA BARNES

Hello! My name is Mella and I love music. I know, who doesn't, right? However, I love the gritty, behind-the-scenes stuff no one talks about. The creation process. The people who make it all happen. My blog is designed to teach people about that process, and even help them get started working in it if they feel inspired to do so! My work has been featured in Songwriting Magazine, HER Magazine, Eydis Authentic Living, and The Huffington Post. I have been featured on numerous podcasts, both music and non-music related.

THE BLOG

With an average of 1,000 unique visits per month, Mella Music is growing daily. I've been undergoing a great deal of learning about the process, tweaking things to see what exactly needs to be done in order to grow.

Blog topics include songwriting ideas, recording tips, personal stories of my adventures as a session singer/songwriter, and discussing commonly confused music terms. I want to take the confusion and guesswork out of music. It doesn't have to be as exclusive as it seems! My goal is to give anyone with the desire (or even the mild curiosity) the ability to step behind-the-songs and learn how everything works! I also take regular, everyday products or situations and tie them into music. If you think your brand won't work with my blog, I can probably find a way!
